The action of the Board of Supervisors in extending the season for the killing of rabbits to Feb. 1st was wise. Many hundreds of acres of young fruit trees have been planted and the rabbits, in a severe winter, would destroy the trees. The fruit will be worth more than all the rabbits that could be raised.

Fell 85 Feet.

Last Wednesday morning, while engaged in strengthening the Riverton bridge in order that larger engines could pass over, a guy wire broke causing the superstructure of false work, to fall on the bridge and into the river, 85 feet below. One man was carried down with the timbers. Before reaching the water, he jumped and escaped without injury. The Eastbound morning passenger train was in sight, when the accident occurred and was delayed about two hours. Fortunately no one was hurt. Reports of the train falling into the river and of one span of the bridge falling caused much anxiety along the line.

Shall we Have Blood Hounds?

Mr. J. J. Goehenour made a proposition to the Board of Supervisors to purchase by private subscription blood hounds for the use of the county, if the county authorities would take care of the dogs. The Board has taken the matter under consideration and will take action at the next regular meeting. The dogs will cost about $500.00. This we believe is the cheapest way of preventing crimes. If criminals know that they will be pursued by blood hounds in Shenandoah county, they will be disposed to give our county a wide berth.

Held up and Robbed.

A son of Thomas Rinker of Jeremy was held up and robbed of twenty-three dollars, a gold watch, &c. The hold up was on the ridge road, not far from Conville. There seems to be something very defective in the law or the execution of the law. It is said that when these crimes occur, the criminals are only arrested when the officers see proper to run them down and arrest them at their own expense.

Many of the students of Massanutten Academy left for their homes, last Tuesday and Wednesday, to spend Thanksgiving. We wish them all a happy holiday and a speedy return.

Mr. J. W. Moore, formerly of this county, but now of the State of Washington, has been elected President of the Adna Advance Association. This is a non political organization, intended to advance the agricultural, commercial and social interests of Adna and the surrounding country.

THE CORONER'S JURY RETURNS VERDICT ON PUGHS RUN WRECK.

The coroner's jury after carefully weighing the evidence returned a verdict, which is published below. The verdict is fully in accord with the evidence. It will be remembered that the evidence of some of the witnesses was contradictory, but the verdict is evidently sustained by the preponderance of testimony. There is some difference of opinion as to the rules governing the running of trains. This should not be the case as every employee can fully acquaint himself with the rules of the company.

"State of Virginia." To-wit: Shenandoah County.

An inquisition taken at Woodstock, in the County of Shenandoah, on the 9th day of November, 1908, and adjourned from time to time and concluded November 24th, 1908, before M. Funkhouser, a corner of said County, upon the view of the bodies of Amos Johnson and J. J. Jones, there lying dead.

The jurors sworn to inquire when, how, and by what means the said Amos Johnson and J. J. Jones came to their death, upon their oaths do say:

That the said Amos Johnson and J. J. Jones came to their death on November 9th, 1908, in a collision and wreck of Nos. 174 and 263 of the Southern Railway Company at Pugh's Run in Shenandoah county, Virginia, and do further say that said collision and wreck was primarily caused by the negligence of Conductor Claude Yochum of train No. 174 in not obeying orders delivered to him for the management of his train; further that the failure of Dispatcher P. B. Peyton to issue middle orders at the intended point of meeting of trains Nos. 174 and 263 contributed to the said collision, and that Operator A. P. Bowers was in some degree negligent insofar as he did not see that Conductor Yochum fully understood his orders. But the jurors do not find, under the circumstances, any of the negligence above set forth of sufficient degree to constitute criminal negligence.

In testimony whereof, the Coroner and Jurors have hereto set their hands this 24th day of November, 1908."

Shenandoah County Man Badly Scalded in Wreck.

Cumberland, Md., Nov. 23.—John B. Stewart, of Timberville, Va., and Jesse Stickley, of Bowman's, Va., two members of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad track repair gang, who were asleep in their camp car at the west end of the Kingwood tunnel, near Kingwood, W. Va., were badly scalded in a wreck at that point yesterday shortly after the midnight hour, and are now in the Allegheny Hospital, Cumberland, Md., in a serious condition, the result of their injuries and shock.

The second section of train No. 4, a solid express train, was coming east with a helping engine ahead. At that point the helper is generally detached and run in on the siding, where the two camp cars were lying. By some mistake the entire train was run in on the siding, crashing into the camp cars and smashing them to pieces against the walls of the tunnel. The escaping steam from the engine scalded the men, who were thrown up near the boiler. There was only one other occupant of the camp cars, an Italian, who was only slightly scalded.

Bears in Massanutten Mountain.

A few days ago Mr. William Lina-weaver shot at a bear, on the Fort mountain. Last week Messrs. Mac Robinson and Richard Mitchell encountered a large bear at the lower end of the Fort mountain, which they killed. With bear, deer, wild turkeys, pheasants, partridges, wild cats, coons, ground hogs, opossums and rabbits, the hunting grounds of Shenandoah Valley, with its five ranges of mountains will soon rival those of the far west. There is really no use for the President of the United States to travel a thousand miles to find big game, when there is so much within a hundred miles of Washington.

A Queer Mix Up.

A lady with two very small children was on her way to Roanoke and a beautiful basket ball in the snow, at Woodstock, was on her way to Eastwood College. At Front Royal, the suit cases were accidentally exchanged and the lady, at Roanoke, when she undertook to dress her children found that she had only a basket ball suit while the young lady at Eastern College had only baby clothes to use in her next game of basket ball.

"For fifteen years I have watched the working of Bucklen's Arnica Salve; and it has never failed to cure any sore, boil, ulcer or burn to which it was applied. It has saved us many a doctor bill," says A. F. Hardy, of East Wilton, Maine. 25c. at Walton & Smoot's drug store.

Barn Set On Fire.

While J. H. Pickett, of near Mid-dletown, Frederick county, was at church last Sunday evening, some one set fire to his big barn, which had just been completed, and it was burned down, together with 500 bushels of wheat and a great quantity of hay and winter feed. The loss is $3,000, which is partly covered by insurance.

JNO. W. NEWMAN DIED NEAR NEW MARKET.

Mr. John W. Newman, a prominent farmer residing three miles northeast of New Market, died suddenly at half-past 9 o'clock last Thursday night. He had been in declining health for about a year, but had been much stronger lately and was in New Market on Thursday evening, only a few hours before his death. He had returned home and was engaged in conversation with his family, when he collapsed and in a few minutes was dead.

Mr. Newman was a son of the late Walter and Caroline Rice Newman, and was born April 15, 1845, at the old Newman homestead on the Shenandoah River several miles west of New Market. He was consequently well advanced in his 64th year. He had a large family connection in this county and was a cousin of the late A. M. Newman and Mrs. L. C. Myers, of Harrisonburg. He is survived by his widow, who was Miss Elizabeth Murphy before her marriage, together with five sons and two daughters. They are William M. Newman, of Waynesboro, Va.; R. Sidney Newman, of Maurettown; S. F. Newman, of Harrisonburg; Asa Newman, whose home is in Ohio; Walter and Miss Essie Newman, who are at home, and Mrs. T. A. Miller, of Edin, Va.

When a mere youth Mr. Newman enlisted in the Confederate army and served as First Sergeant of Company G, Twenty-third Virginia Cavalry. His record for gallantry was one that reflected the highest credit upon him and was a matter of pride among his comrades. He was a member of Rice-Neff Camp of Confederate Veterans and took a lively interest in the welfare of that organization. He was also a member of the Masonic fraternity, holding his membership with the Mt. Jackson Lodge. He was buried with Masonic honors.

Mr. Newman was a member of the Methodist church and had long been a steward in the New Market congregation. He was active and influential in the affairs of the church, and frequently represented it in district and annual conferences. As a citizen and a neighbor he was held in the highest esteem, and his death is sincerely lamented in a large circle of those who appreciated his sterling worth.

Mr. Newman was a brother of Mrs. Geo. W. Kootz and Mrs. W. S. Cline, of Woodstock.

His funeral took place on Sunday morning from the Methodist church, in New Market.

Goosebone Prediction.

The Winchester goosebone prophet says that the breastbone of the goose is marked very peculiarly this year. There is a dark spot here and there, making an accurate prediction difficult, indicating that the winter is to be generally an open one, with a very cold spell now and then.

December will be very cold, but there will be little snow. January will have some snow, with a warm spell during the middle of the month. February will be a severe month, with plenty of ice and snow. March will be open, with a warm spell and plenty of rain and hail, and a late spring will follow.

Addison Munch.

Mr. Addison Munch, for many years, the most prominent merchant in Powell's Fort, died last Monday night, in the 57th year of his age.

Mr. Munch was a good man, highly esteemed by a large circle of acquaintances. He is survived by his wife and three daughters, Mrs. David Lichtler, Mrs. Wm. Rittenour and Mrs. Rittenour, of Front Royal. His body was buried in the old home graveyard on Wednesday morning.
